Which Continent is Most Affordable?

Which Continent Has Better Adult To Child Friendly Ski Resorts?

Which Country In Europe would be Best For Child & Adult Satisfaction?

Final Recommendation

- Following all the evidence showcased above, it fair to say that the ideal destination for a ski resort should be Europe, with over 360 resorts but price below average across all continents.
- Moreover, Europe has the most child friendly resorts in the whole world, but doesn't neglect the adult satisfaction. The ratio between adult or child satisfaction is about 45:55.
- This ratio represents the average cost difference between kid and adult price,
- Along with that, we established top 5 countries which are both child friendly and adult friendly by formulating a relationship between "Slope Difficulty" & "Child Friendly / Adult".
- Many resorts in Switzerland and Austria, have both Child Friendly but also catered towards adults needs, by including snowparks and more difficult slopes.
